Discover What Your Collection Is Worth

Your passion is to collect. Ours is to help you protect your carefully acquired investments. The larger and more valuable your collection becomes, the greater your need for certified, accurate evaluations.

Today's current economic conditions leave collectors increasingly interested in learning the current worth of their fine and decorative art. We recommend having your collection appraised every three years to ensure that your most valued objects and assets are protected. Our knowledge and independent perspective have helped collectors consistently make the right buying, selling, and investing decisions.

Miller Gaffney Art Advisory understands that your collection is an important estate and investment portfolio asset. Prices realized for art and jewelry continue to be extraordinarily strong as buyers and sellers look to leverage enthusiasm surrounding the market. We provide up-to-date, objective advice focused solely on your needs.

Appraisal Services

Appraisals for the purposes of: Insurance, Estate Planning and Gift Taxation, Financial Planning, Resale, Equitable Distribution, Charitable Donations, Inventory, Loan Collateral, Damage and Loss Claims, and Liquidation.

Appraisals are essential tools in establishing appropriate insurance coverage, providing documentation for losses, legal matters, tax issues and philanthropic purposes, and aiding in estate planning. Our certified appraisers evaluate your fine and decorative art, jewelry, and collectibles while minimizing intrusion and maintaining the privacy and security required by our clientele. Illustrated appraisals are completed in compliance with IRS and USPAP guidelines.

Each article is carefully examined, thoroughly researched, catalogued, and illustrated in our tailored reports. We customize the appraisal process for each individual by selecting from a variety of services to deliver a course of action that exceeds expectations.
